Sponsors

If money is a concern to you, and you plan to minister within a church setting, or with a particular group (e.g. Hospice, Board of Trustees, Encounter Groups, Christian education programs, etc.,) you may want to contact the group leader or your church pastor/minister. They may be willing to sponsor you in this program. It is our experience over the last 25 years that churches and organizations are very supportive of new students and interns who are being formed for this ministry. These same connections may also be sources for the referral of directees in your ministerial future.
